

SOONER SAFER HAPPIER LIVE

Powerful stories. Practical learning. Useful, long term connections.

Join an intimate group of leaders at all levels in all roles, driving better outcomes through new Ways of Working. A curated day designed to build useful connections that last and a high number of learnings per minute. Practical, peer to peer collaboration supported by global thought leaders.

What is it?

- A one-day conference in central London, with practical sessions
- An intimate gathering with limited seats
- 8 real-world case studies from organisations like banks, telecoms, and government, improving outcomes – practical, not passive talks
- 4 hands-on workshops to apply ideas immediately
- Intentionally cross-functional, welcoming leaders from all roles and levels
- Refreshments and lunch included in price
- Evening networking event

Why attend?

- To help you deliver better value, sooner safer, and happier in your organisation
- Learn new ninja moves for organisational improvement
- Connect with peers facing similar challenges
- Bring back actionable insights relevant to your context
- Share proven approaches to improving outcomes and flow
- Strengthen leadership capability

Modern Leadership

Making culture change actionable

Outcomes over output

AI in the enterprise

Using data to enable better decisions

Organising for value with value streams

Roundtables

Practical sessions

Discussions

What to look forward to

Tom Skalycz (HMRC) :Modernising a live, safety-critical estate while continuing to collect £875bn a year.

Barbara Arnst & Benjamin Geens (Telenet) From an 8-week AI build to rollout across 150 teams. Different scale, same problem: governance.

Emily Roche (DHSC) A department-wide shift away from low-value work through small, practical experiments.

Simon Rohrer (Saxo Bank) Where autonomy helps, where it hurts, and how to balance it with coherence.

We're bringing together a number of sessions like this focused on real learnings and outcomes

09 Sept 26

Central London

£650

First come, first served!